

WESLEY K. BELL
Independent Candidate

Born Aug. 31st 1937 in Philadelphia, Penn. to his parents Adline and Robert Bell.

The Bells relocated in 1940 to Ship Bottom on the Jersey Shore with Wes and his four brothers. Wes was educated on Long Beach Island and then attended and graduated from Barnegat High School.

Wes joined the U.S. Navy Air Reserves at the age of sixteen while still in High School, serving eight years at Lakehurst Naval Air Station and was Honorably Discharged.

At the age of eighteen, Wes started his own business, WES OUTDOOR ADVERTISING CO. (now in its 49th Year). In 1960 Wes was cited by a National magazine as the youngest owner of a Billboard business in the United States and in 1963 Wes won in National Competition for the Best Sign in the United States.

In 1969 Wes was first elected to the Stafford Township Government and following that stunning victory, Wes was elected a total of five times between 1969 and 1982. During that time Wes led Stafford Township as its Mayor six of those years, caused him to take actions to successfully Dismiss and Remove for cause the Chief of Police, his secretary, two separate Building Inspectors, the Municipal Court Judge, the Court Clerk, two Zoning Officers and several other employees that were derelict in their duties.

Wes never shrugged his duties to maintain an Honest Government. Wes, as friends call him, is known for opposing Unconstitutional Government Actions and Regulations and the New Jersey Supreme Court unanimously ruled in their Landmark Decision in Wes Bells pro se action on May 26th 1988, now cited as BELL -v- STAFFORD 110 N.J. 384 (1988).

The readers of Gannett Newspapers, The BEACON and the THE TIMES voted Wes Bell as Readers Choice Awards for 2004 the Best Ocean County Politician.

In 1999 the United States Bureau of Patents issued Wes Bell a U.S. Patent #5,666,898 for Wes's Invention of both the method and Equipment for the Underwater Salvage of Yachts and small Ships at depths beyond the reach of Divers.

In 1976 Wes married his wife Ann, and is enjoying his thirtieth year of marriage.

Wes opposes the Sale of the States Toll Roads and Promises to Cut the States Budget and Excessive work force.

Wes said the State must live within its means and Repeal Unnecessary Agencies, Wesley K. Bell web site is (www.bellforgovernor.com)
