ELEC Program Area Offering the Internship: NJ Election Law Enforcement Commission Executive Division

Internship Project Description: This position assists ELEC Executive and Deputy Executive Directors with research projects aimed at informing policy-makers, the media and the public about campaign finance and lobbying trends. The specific projects vary depending on the needs of the agency at the time of the internship (i.e.- type of election year, such as gubernatorial or legislative). All projects involve research, writing and compilation of spreadsheets. Projects are often analyses of subjects such as electioneering, heavily lobbied legislation, ELEC regulations, independent spending language in state laws across the country, campaign finance bills across the country, disclosure by lobbyists and campaign finance regulators. Information gathered has been used in guiding ELEC Directors as well as legislators and the Governor's office in updating current and developing new legislation.

Estimated Project Duration and Suggested Weekly Work Schedule: Typically, 3-4 months in length. Weekly work schedule will be flexible, commensurate with credits earned.
