PRESS ADVISORY

Seven municipal candidates and one county freeholder must pay fines and fees totaling $3,083.36 for violating the Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting Act (Campaign Act), the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission (ELEC) announced today. These enforcement actions, known as final decisions, were approved by the Commission at its December 20, 2022, meeting.

In addition, on December 14, 2022, four complaints were issued against four of the “Big Six” political party committees and their treasurers for non-compliance by each entity with the Campaign Act in the 2017 quarterly reports. They too could face fines.
